Information Sharing Stakeholder Roadshows

The W&RSETA invites stakeholder companies, training providers and institutions of training to the information sharing stakeholder roadshows on the implementation of occupational qualifications in the sector. The SETA will interact with stakeholders to advise and guide on the transitional activities and processes as we move from legacy qualifications to occupational qualifications.

Areas of discussion will include the following:

Accreditation – SDP and Assessment Centre | Assessor and Moderator Registration
Qualification Development Process | Expiration of Legacy Qualification | Funding Model
SSP engagement outcomes and Research Agenda | Non-conformance and QMS Updates
W&RSETA Learner Enrolment Process

Participation of key role players will ensure that the W&RSETA and its stakeholders are prepared to transition to the new trajectory of skills development.
